24	ההויה	Hahuiah
 The diagram shows a Rosicrucian sigil for the name Hahuiah. It consists of two concentric circles. The outer circle contains the Hebrew letters ה (top), ה (left), ה (right), and ה (bottom) positioned at the 12, 9, 3, and 6 o'clock positions respectively. The inner circle contains a central geometric figure: a vertical line with a horizontal bar at the top, forming a T-shape. From the top-right corner of this T-shape, a diagonal line extends to the right and then curves upwards to meet the inner circle. At this point of contact, there is a small circle with a horizontal line passing through its center, resembling a stylized '3' or a specific magical symbol.

The diagram features a square frame containing two concentric circles. The outer circle is inscribed with the Hebrew letters 'ה' at the top, 'א' on the right, 'י' at the bottom, and 'ה' on the left. The inner circle contains a central sigil consisting of two parallel lines that converge to a point at the bottom. The upper line is shorter and ends in a small circle. The lower line is longer and passes through two small circles before ending in a larger circle at the top.

27	ירתאל	Ierathel

 The diagram is a circular sigil enclosed in a square border. It features two concentric circles. In the center is a triangle with its top vertex pointing upwards. From the top vertex, a vertical line extends to the top inner circle, ending in a small circle with a wavy line above it. Four Hebrew characters are positioned on the outer circle: 'ה' at the top, 'ה' on the left, 'ה' on the right, and 'ה' at the bottom. The bottom 'ה' is stylized with three small circles below it.

 The sigil for Nithanael is enclosed in a square frame. It features two concentric circles. The outer circle contains four Hebrew characters: נ (Nun) at the top, ח (Chet) on the left, א (Aleph) at the bottom, and ט (Tet) on the right. Inside the circles, there is a triangle with a vertical line extending from its top vertex to a horizontal base. A diagonal line runs from the bottom-left vertex to the top-right vertex. A second diagonal line runs from the bottom-left vertex to a small circle located in the lower-right quadrant of the inner circle.
